FROM: SAC, LOUISVILLE (100-NEW) (P)

SUBJECT: GENE L. MASON
SM - MISCELLANEOUS

On 10/15/70, LOUIS J. CEASE, Office Manager, American Mutual Insurance Company, 496 Southland Drive, Lexington, Kentucky, telephonically advised SA FENTON T. SCHOLL that his wife, SARAH, attends a seminar in Judicial Government at the University of Kentucky (UK), in Lexington, Kentucky. The class meets in the home of political science Professor GENE L. MASON, 458 West Third, Lexington, Kentucky, on Wednesday nights. He added that his wife informed him the night before that at a recent seminar, an individual by the name of GATEWOOD (LNU) made a statement that within the next month or so, some of the students would bomb a building on the UK campus. CEASE added that GATEWOOD is friendly with KARL MAY and JULIAN KENNAMER, two members of the class.

CEASE continued that his wife would not talk to the FBI and was unaware that he was reporting same.

It is to be noted that MAY and KENNAMER are both associated with the Student Mobilization Committee at UK and are currently under investigation by the Louisville Division. Further, KENNAMER, MAY and GATEWOOD GALBRAITH are officials of the Grosvenor Street Zoological Gardens, Inc., (also known as Grosvenor Street Zoo), 305 Grosvenor Street, Lexington, Kentucky, which appears to be the off-campus headquarters of SMC. according to [REDACTED]

On 10/19/70, KENNETH BRANDENBURG, Assistant to the Dean of Students, UK, made available to SA SCHOLL a list of students for the above mentioned seminar which according to BRANDENBURG was not authorized to be held off-campus. The list did not contain the name of anyone with the first name GATEWOOD. BRANDENBURG advised that students ROBERT KOVEN and JAMES MC NEW listed as members of this class were both personally known to BRANDENBURG and he felt were reliable and responsible individuals.

On 10/20/70, ROBERT KOVEN was contacted at his residence, Creekside Apartments, Apt. I-37, Lexington, Kentucky by SA SCHOLL. KOVEN was advised that he was being contacted in regard to the reported statement by an individual that in the Wednesday night seminar held at 458 West Third an individual made a remark to the effect that a UK building would be blown up in the near future, by a group of students. He was further advised that the inquiry was not concerned with the subject matter of the class or the professor but only with the statement made by one of those attending the class.

KOVEN stated he attended the seminar on Wednesday, night, October 14, 1970, at the home of Professor GENE MASON and that GATEWOOD GALBRAITH attends this class. He considered GALBRAITH capable of violence and mentally deraigned but did not recall him making any statement concerning bombing of buildings. KOVEN volunteered that he would call the FBI if he heard of any violence proposed by any one in the class or out.

LS 100-NEW

On 10/20/70, JAMES MC NEW, Kappa Alpha Fraternity House, Lexington, Kentucky, was contacted telephonically by SA SCHOLL and arrangement was made to meet with him at the intersection of Rose Avenue and Avenue of Champions in Lexington on the morning of 10/21/70.

On 10/21/70, MC NEW was contacted at the above mentioned intersection and advised of the purpose of the interview. It was also stressed to him that the inquiry did not concern Professor MASON or the classroom subject matter. MC NEW stated that on 10/14/70, GATEWOOD GALBRAITH, whom he considers not mentally sound, made a statement that he believed that some of the students would blow up a building on the campus within a month. He added that neither he nor any other student take GALBRAITH serious. MC NEW added that GALBRAITH appears to be a loner and does not represent any group on the campus or otherwise.

For the information of the Bureau, Professor GENE L. MASON is appealing a conviction on charges of knowingly receiving a stolen typewriter. His contract with UK is not being renewed as a result of this conviction.

Also for the information of the Bureau, on 11/9/70.

Lexington, Kentucky on a warrant for violation of SSA. Professor GENE MASON was present during this arrest.

"The Lexington Herald", a daily newspaper in Lexington, Kentucky in its issue of 11/10/70 on page 1, contains an article captioned "Mason Protests UK Aid to FBI."

This article reflects that MASON has charged the UK Administration with impropriety in the release to the FBI the list of students in his class. The article states he is considering seeking a USDC injunction to prevent the FBI from investigating his students.

LS 100-NEW

MASON states in the article that the FBI was investigating remarks made six weeks ago by a participant in one of his classes, GATEWOOD GALBRAITH, who had remarked that the black community here was a smoldering powder keg as were some segments of the student community and the CROSSEN trial would increase the likelihood that buildings would be bombed. MASON stated that GALBRAITH added he did not know of anyone who would resort to such violence but believes violent protest would take place.

CROSSEN is Doctor PHILIP CROSSEN, who was convicted this fall on charges stemming from a rock music festival held on his farm in Lexington, Kentucky.

The article quotes a statement by JACK B. HALL, UK Dean of Students and ROBERT G. ZUMWINKLE, Vice President for Social Affairs:

"In mid-October a Federal agency in cooperation with the UK Safety and Security Department, approached the Dean of Students' Office and requested a list of students enrolled in a specific class at the University.

"The request pertained not only to the possibility of violation of law but to the physical safety and welfare of the University community. The class roll was provided to the agency.

"In our judgment, such action by appropriate University officials was both proper and necessary. The University was acting in the interest of protecting members of the University community against possible serious physical harm.

"Furthermore, Kentucky State law prescribes that: All student records shall be made available upon request to any Federal or Local law enforcement agency and any Court of Law."

LS 100-NEW

The entire article mentioned above is being forwarded to the Bureau under separate cover.

No active investigation is being conducted concerning Professor GENE MASON; however, the Louisville Division will at Lexington, Kentucky, follow through established sources further pertinent developments in this matter.

FBI Investigation On UK Campus Is Questionable

IT IS DISTURBING, and deeply so, that the FBI apparently has begun an investigation, based on the flimsiest of excuses, of a University of Kentucky class taught by controversial instructor Gene Mason. Such a probe can serve only to intimidate other professors and students and could inflict immeasurable damage on the concept and practice of academic freedom at the Lexington campus.

The investigation reportedly was initiated after a student in Mr. Mason's seminar on political trials made reference to the possibility that "burning or bombing" might result from the recent conviction of Lexington physician Phillip S. Crossen on charges stemming from a rock festival held at his farm. According to Mr. Mason, the student's statement represented an opinion rather than a call for violent action.

This hardly seems to justify the intrusion of the FBI. Indeed, the question must be raised as to whether the investigation is aimed more at Mr. Mason, who has been involved in a number of controversial causes recently, than at the students.

If this is an example of why and how the FBI intends to keep a check on "subversive" elements on our nation's campuses, then there is genuine reason to fear that the effect, if not the purpose, will be to intimidate students and professors and repress dissent.

Equally disturbing was the docile acquiescence of the University administration, which provided the FBI with a list of students enrolled in Mr. Mason's class. While this information is neither privileged nor secret, it seems that the University could have conducted its own preliminary investigation to determine whether the FBI's presence on campus was even necessary.

By subordinating its authority on campus to the FBI for such a seemingly minor incident, the administration well may have harmed the mutual trust and faith that must exist between students, faculty and administrators for the university to perform its functions as an educational institution.

SUBJECT: THE COURIER-JOURNAL
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY
11/11/70 EDITION

Ore Louisville airtel to Bureau 11/10/70, captioned,
"GENE L. MASON, SM - MISCELLANEOUS."
SECURITY MATTER

Enclosed is a copy of an editorial which appeared in the 11/11/70 edition of The Courier-Journal. The editorial makes reference to an inquiry as to a class being conducted by GENE L. MASON at his home in Lexington, Kentucky, relative to "Political Science." As referenced airtel indicated, MASON is a Professor at the University of Kentucky in Lexington. MASON had no authority from the University to conduct any type of class at his residence. Information has been obtained that comments were made that students would bomb a building on the University of Kentucky campus at one of the classes in the home of MASON. Bureau can rest assured that any time we obtain any inkling of any information by anyone, I don't care whom, that they are allegedly going to institute a bombing, we are going to check it out.

To characterize MASON, he is presently appealing a conviction on charges of knowingly receiving a stolen typewriter and further the University is not renewing his contract.

As the Bureau has previously been advised on numerous occasions, the publishers of this newspaper do not hesitate to print unfavorable editorials concerning the Bureau. The paper is anti-Bureau in particular and anti-law enforcement in general.

Certainly no purpose would be served in contacting the editor and straightening him out on his editorial, coupled with the fact he does not deserve the privilege of being contacted.

Mason, a professor at the University of Kentucky, is subject of a pending security investigation. His class to which the newspaper article refers was held at his residence without permission of the university authorities. Senator Marlow W. Cook (R-Kentucky), on 11/27/70, forwarded a letter which he received from Steve Bright, Student Body President, University of Kentucky (UK), Lexington, Kentucky, together with Xerox copy of several articles which appeared in "The Kentucky Kernel," a UK publication, and an article which appeared in "The Courier Journal," a daily newspaper, Louisville, Kentucky, which charged FBI interference in a seminar at which a statement was made relative to a threat to bomb a building on the UK campus. Bright expressed concern about the threat to academic freedom posed by an "inappropriate intrusion into the classroom by the FBI." Senator Cook is not on the Special Correspondents List; however, we have had limited official contact with him in the past.

On 10/15/70 information was received from the husband of a student attending a seminar at the UK conducted by Professor Gene L. Mason at his residence who reported that at a recent seminar one Gatewood Galbraith made a statement that within the next month or so some students would bomb a UK building. On 10/19/70 the Assistant to the Dean of Students made available to Special Agent personnel of the Louisville Office a list of students attending the seminar. The seminar was not authorized to be held off campus and the list of students did not contain Galbraith's name. Two students recommended by the Assistant to the Dean of Students were interviewed for the specific purpose of obtaining information concerning the bomb threat and they described Galbraith as being mentally deranged and capable of violence. One of the students advised that Galbraith did make a statement that he believed some of the students would blow up a campus building.

The 11/10/70 issue of "The Lexington Herald," a daily Lexington, Kentucky, newspaper, reported that Mason charged the UK administration with impropriety in releasing the names of his students to the Bureau and was considering an injunction to prevent FBI investigation of his students. He charged the FBI was investigating a remark made by Galbraith that the black community was a smoldering powder keg as were segments of the student community and that the trial of Doctor Phillip Crossen would insure the likelihood that buildings would be bombed. Crossen was recently convicted on charges arising from a rock music festival held on his farm in Lexington, Kentucky. The article also contained a statement from UK officials that Kentucky State law prescribes that all student records may be made available upon request of any Federal or local law enforcement agency or court of law and that the University acted in the interest of protecting the physical safety and welfare of the student community.

Mason is currently appealing a conviction on charges of knowingly receiving a stolen typewriter and his contract is not being renewed. He was active in the Southern Conference Education Fund, Incorporated, which was cited by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as being active in the racial-civil rights field. Steve Bright recently debated Vice President Spiro Agnew on television regarding campus violence and was convicted in the Spring of 1969 of disorderly conduct in connection with a demonstration at UK.

Based on available information, Louisville was on sound ground in initiating an inquiry relative to the threat to bomb a campus building. Attached letter to Senator Cook notes that Bright's allegations regarding FBI intrusion into classroom activities are false and that all investigations undertaken by the FBI are conducted under statutory authority or by direction of the President or Attorney General.

Attached letter to Senator Cook be approved and sent.

Dear Mr. Mason:

This letter is in reference to my previous communication concerning your Freedom of Information-Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request.

An exceedingly heavy volume of FOIPA requests has been received these past few months. Additionally, court deadlines involving certain historical cases of considerable scope have been imposed upon the FBI. Despite successive expansions of our staff responsible for FOIPA matters, substantial delays in processing requests continue.

The FBI has 5,862 FOIPA requests on hand. Processing has begun, and is in various stages of completion on 1,029 of those cases. It will not be possible for the FBI to meet all workday deadlines previously made. In an effort to deal fairly with any request requiring the retrieval, processing and duplication of documents, each request is being handled in chronological order based on the date of receipt. Please be assured that your request is being handled as equitably as possible and that all documents which can be released will be made available at the earliest possible date.

To expedite release of any documents which may pertain to you, please submit your notarized signature. This procedure is designed to insure that information concerning an individual is released only to that person.

GENE L. MASON

The September 24, 1973, issue of the "Manchester Union Leader," a Manchester, New Hampshire daily newspaper, on pages 1 and 8, contains an article by Reporter Arthur C. Egan, Jr., dateline Concord, New Hampshire, which indicates that Governor Meldrim Thomson, Jr., had requested State and Federal prosecutors as well as the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), to investigate the activities of a Franconia College professor for possible violations of State and Federal laws in connection with prison agitation.

On October 5, 1973, United States Attorney William Deachman, Concord, New Hampshire, furnished a copy of the letter which has been sent to inmate John Kerrigan at the Massachusetts Correctional Institute (MCI), Walpole, Massachusetts, from Gene L. Mason, a member of the faculty, Franconia College, Franconia, New Hampshire.

The envelope was addressed as follows:

"John Kerrigan
President, NEPA
MCI, Walpole
South Walpole, Mass."

The letter is written on paper with the caption, "New England Prisoners' Association." The letter reads as follows:

"The Franconia Chpt. is going to put out the NEPA newspaper where SCARY Times left-off. We will have an issue out in 1 mo. We need (1) names "and addresses of families of men in Walpole & other Mass. joints to send a complimentary copy to in hopes they will subscribe; (2) copy for the paper - articles, poetry, graphics, comics, legal briefs, etc. Specifically we would like to publish in the first issue a review approved by NPRA of Burke's recent 144 pp. report on Walpole. It is all over the Manchester Union Leader & our fascist governor is promoting repression here with it. We must attack. Can you help? Can we get someone there to be a regular inside contributor to the paper. The paper will be free to prisoners as long as we can do it. Stay strong.

FBI Probe

Mason

Reveals Letter Urging Prisoners to 'Attack'

By ARTHUR C. EGAN JR.

CONCORD — State and federal prosecutors, as well as the FBI, have been asked by Gov. Meldrim Thomson Jr. to investigate the activities of a Franconia College professor for possible violations of state and federal laws in connection with prison agitation.

In a letter Saturday to FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley, the governor identified the professor as Gene L. Mason, a member of the political science department at Franconia College.

Mason himself is an ex-convict, having served time in the Kentucky State Reformatory after being convicted of receiving stolen property. He had been sentenced to one year in the state institution, and is currently on five years' probation, according to Kentucky officials.

Gov. Thomson also asked the U.S. attorney for New Hampshire, William Deachman, and N.H. Atty. Gen. Warren Rudman to investigate Mason's activities concerning prison agitation in New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

Letter to Inmate

Thomson's letters to the state and federal law enforcement heads were prompted by a handwritten communication sent by Mason to John Kerrigan, an inmate of Walpole State Prison in Massachusetts.

In his letter to Kerrigan, who is president of a prison-inmate rights group, Mason told the Walpole convict, "we must attack." Mason did not elaborate what he meant by "attack," but Walpole has been the scene of several violent confrontations between the inmates and the guards.

Commenting on a recent 144-page report issued recently by Norfolk County District Attorney George Burke on the disturbances at Walpole Prison, Mason told Kerrigan in the letter, "It is all over the Manchester Union Leader."

'Our Fascist Governor'

Mason referred to Thomson as "our fascist governor who is promoting regression" in New Hampshire with the Burke report.

The Franconia College professor, in his letter to Kerrigan, revealed that the North Country college will be soon publishing a newspaper devoted to news about prisons, the rights of inmates, and a review of Burke's report on the numerous riots at Walpole.

Mason asked Kerrigan to furnish the college with the names and addresses of the families of Walpole inmates and "other Massachusetts joints" who might subscribe to the newspaper.

For the letter to Kerrigan, the college faculty member used the letterhead of the "New England Prisoners' Association" and an envelope with the return address of "Franconia College."

Gov. Thomson, in his letter to FBI Director Kelley, said, "I am writing to ask the help of the bureau in a threat to the security of the N.H. State Prison by Gene L. Mason, a professor of political science at Franconia College.

"Inasmuch as this threat may have violated federal statutes, I would respectfully request your cooperation in making a thorough investigation of this matter."

Thomson also asked the FBI to make a determination "whether any federal funds are used in a palpable attempt to destroy a state institution."

In asking Rudman to probe Mason's activities, Thomson asked the attorney general to render an opinion on whether Mason's letter to the Walpole inmate violated state law by "suggesting an attack on our security system."

Letter to Deachman

Gov. Thomson's communication to U.S. Atty. Deachman asked the federal prosecutor to determine whether Mason's "call to attack" might have violated federal statutes.

A copy of Mason's handwritten letter was supplied to all of the federal and state officials contacted by the governor. The original copy of the letter was supplied to Gov. Thomson by Massachusetts prison officials who became concerned with the tone of Mason's call "to attack." The letter had been opened and copied as part of the routine check of inmates' mail.

The Franconia college professor has been active in prison agitation since joining the faculty at Franconia. Records at the state reformatory in Kentucky revealed that Mason was hired for his post at Franconia College while he was serving time in the reformatory.

Mason served only a month and four days of his sentence and the records indicate he was released "solely on the efforts of Franconia College authorities."

Fired by UKy

A one-time member of the faculty at the University of Kentucky, Mason was fired from his job for reasons never disclosed. Officials of the state university, asked about Mason's career there, would only say "he did not leave of his own accord." However, Kentucky officials refused to elaborate on the circumstances surrounding his firing.

Mason has been active in prison circles in Massachusetts and at one time was a so-called "civilian observer" in Cell Block 10 at Walpole, which was the scene of a confrontation with authorities.

Records at Walpole disclosed that Mason signed the book there as an "observer" during daytime hours, a time when a college professor would normally be participating in his classroom instruction.

Mason has also participated in demonstrations in Concord protesting the treatment of inmates of the N.H. State Prison.

It is known that investigators from Washington have previously expressed an interest in Mason's activities and that of a Concord woman and a Bedford woman in connection with prison agitation.

"The Lexington Herald", a daily newspaper in Lexington, Kentucky in its issue of 11/10/70 on page 1, contains an article captioned "Mason Protests UK Aid to FBI."

This article reflects that MASON has charged the UK Administration with impropriety in the release to the FBI the list of students in his class. The article states he is considering seeking a USDC injunction to prevent the FBI from investigating his students.

MASON states in the article that the FBI was investigating remarks made six weeks ago by a participant in one of his classes, GATEWOOD GALBRAITH, who had remarked that the black community here was a smoldering powder keg as were some segments of the student community and the CROSSEN trial would increase the likelihood that buildings would be bombed. MASON stated that GALBRAITH added he did not know of anyone who would resort to such violence but believes violent protest would take place.

FBI Investigation On UK Campus Is Questionable

IT IS DISTURBING, and deeply so, that the FBI apparently has begun an investigation, based on the flimsiest of excuses, of a University of Kentucky class taught by controversial instructor Gene Mason. Such a probe can serve only to intimidate other professors and students and could inflict immeasurable damage on the concept and practice of academic freedom at the Lexington campus.

The investigation reportedly was initiated after a student in Mr. Mason's seminar on political trials made reference to the possibility that "burning or bombing" might result from the recent conviction of Lexington physician Phillip S. Crossen on charges stemming from a rock festival held at his farm. According to Mr. Mason, the student's statement represented an opinion rather than a call for violent action.

This hardly seems to justify the intrusion of the FBI. Indeed, the question must be raised as to whether the investigation is aimed more at Mr. Mason, who has been involved in a number of controversial causes recently, than at the students.

If this is an example of why and how the FBI intends to keep a check on "subversive" elements on our nation's campuses, then there is genuine reason to fear that the effect, if not the purpose, will be to intimidate students and professors and repress dissent.

Equally disturbing was the docile acquiescence of the University administration, which provided the FBI with a list of students enrolled in Mr. Mason's class. While this information is neither privileged nor secret, it seems that the University could have conducted its own preliminary investigation to determine whether the FBI's presence on campus was even necessary.

By subordinating its authority on campus to the FBI for such a seemingly minor incident, the administration well may have harmed the mutual trust and faith that must exist between students, faculty and administrators for the university to perform its functions as an educational institution.

Re: Freedom of Information Appeal

My dear Mr. Levi:

After a long series of correspondence to discover if any information about me was contained in FBI files, I received a letter from Clarence M. Kelley, dated June 24, 1976. The letter had attached two newspaper articles which had been written about me and a copy of the Federal Register of 11/28/73 describing rules and regulations concerning "Production or Disclosure of Material and Information". The letter stated "Excisions have been made from these documents and other documents have been withheld in their entirety in order to protect materials which are exempted from disclosure" by subsections of Title 5, U.S. Code, Section 552:

- "(b) (2) materials related solely to the internal rules and practices of the FBI;

  - (D) reveal the identity of an individual who has furnished information to the FBI under confidential circumstances or reveal information furnished only by such a person and not apparently known to the public or otherwise accessible to the FBI by overt means."

I formally appeal to you the decision of FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley not to release these documents and his decision to make excisions in the files he did release. I question the right of the FBI to maintain secret documents on me. I can assure you that I already had copies of the article in the Manchester Union-Leader reporting on N.H. Governor Meldrim Thomson's request of an FBI investigation of me and the article from the Louisville Courier Journal calling public attention to FBI harrassment of my students.

For your interest, I enclose not only the material I received from Mr. Kelley but also an article I authored a few years ago entitled "The Future of Repression," which was published in Robert Paul Wolff's 1984 Revisited. I described in that article certain official practices regarding the use of secret information and projected the consequences of these practices into the coming decade. In your review of my appeal, I would appreciate your reading my views and sharing them with Mr. Kelley.

I look forward to your decision. I have read much of your written work, and was pleased with the directions of your comments at Bard's inauguration of Leon Botstein regarding the criminal justice system (especially those regarding the indeterminate sentence).

In your review of this decision, I will be glad to cooperate in providing any needed information, and I hope that Mr. Kelley will be equally cooperative.
